Women's Health

What does a Women's Health nurse do?

A Women's Health nurse helps with information and support on a range of women's health topics, including:

- self-collect and nurse-collect cervical screening tests (CSTs) to all people with a cervix
- testing and information about sexually transmitted infections (STIs)
- pregnancy testing, option choices and information
- planning a pregnancy

- contraception options
- menopause advice and wellbeing
- breast awareness education
- continence and pelvic health advice
- free condoms/dams/lubricant and safer sex advice
- LGBTIQ+ friendly, resources and referrals
- community outreach and engagement
- referrals to internal and external services

Our nurses are LGBTIQ+ friendly and a Medicare card is not required to access this service.

Who can use this service?

This service is available to women and people with a cervix who live, work or study in Brimbank, Wyndham or Hobsons Bay.

Is there a fee?

This service is free.

Can I have an interpreter?

Yes, interpreters are free. Please let us know when booking an appointment.
